

State Representative, Jill Billings has been appointed to the tourism committee in Madison as ranking Democrat. She will also serve on the Colleges and Universities, Children and Families, and Workforce Development committees. Billings earlier had been named as co-chair of the Constitution and Ethics Committee. Anything else you plan to work on this session?

\(Click for Audio\)

Billings said she was pleased that Speaker elect Robin Vos announced that two of the Assembly standing committees for the 101st Wisconsin State Legislature will have bipartisan leadership.