

The 2012 elections are barely over, but Wisconsin Democrats are already planning for 2014. Party spokesman Graeme Zielinski says the party is investing $500 thousand to hire political directors in the Fox Valley, Eau Claire and La Crosse areas in the next few weeks. He says the Democrats want the truth to come....and early this time about Governor Scott Walker.

\(Click for Audio\)

Zielinski says Democrats will be working even harder to win state Assembly and Senate races and to topple Walker in 2014.