

No Cars Towed Tonight in La Crosse

Wednesday, 30 January 2013 13:22 -

Cars will not get towed tonight in La Crosse. City public works director Dale Hexom says, although alternate side parking rules are in effect tonight, he will not declare a snow disposal emergency until at least tomorrow morning sometime. Part of that due, he says, to the timing of today's storm

\(Click for Audio\)

If a snow emergency is declared, a tripling of alternate side parking fines goes into effect and cars parked on the wrong side of the street can get towed.