

THE STORY OF THE SLEEPY TRUCK DRIVER HAULING A LOAD OF ENERGY DRINKS THROUGH WISCONSIN WAS GOOD FOR SOME LAUGHS ON CABLE NEWS CHANNELS THIS WEEKEND...

BUT LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT ISN'T LAUGHING. CANADIAN DRIVER BEANT GILL IS BEING CHARGED WITH FELONY ENDANGERMENT AND FLEEING POLICE ON A 20-MILE TEAR THROUGH MONROE COUNTY. JUDGE MICHAEL MC ALPINE SET GILL'S BOND AT 20-THOUSAND DOLLARS CASH. GILL IS FORMERLY FROM INDIA, AND NEEDS AN INTERPRETER TO COMMUNICATE IN COURT. STATE POLICE SAID GILL'S TRUCK WAS WEAVING ALL OVER THE HIGHWAY. A BOMB-SNIFFING DOG DETECTED SOMETHING SUSPICIOUS IN THE TRUCK, BUT A BOMB SQUAD FOUND NO EXPLOSIVES IN THE TRAILER.
