

After months of meetings involving several school districts and the WIAA, it seems as though only one local change could be made when a vote comes about in April. West Salem Superintendent, Troy Gunderson.

\(Click for Audio\)

A move Gunderson does not want to see happen. 2 other local districts, Westby and Viroqua had been talked about moving conferences as well.