

The city clerk in Onalaska is making sure today that you don't vote in the wrong place. Construction at the National Guard Armory is forcing polling places there to move.

The clerk says if you vote in district two or district three, you will vote at the Onalaska Omni Center. That means all Onalaska voters cast ballots at the Omni Center.

Polls are open everywhere in Wisconsin until 8:00 p.m.