21 year old Justin Waterhouse of New Auburn, is charged in an indictment with stealing property of the United States and three counts of selling property of the United States. The indictment alleges that in February 2012, he stole night vision monoculars and gun sights with an aggregate value in excess of $3,000 from Fort McCoy. The indictment also alleges that on three occasions between February and April 2012, he sold some of these stolen items to other individuals.

Waterhouse was originally charged in an indictment returned by the grand jury on May 30, 2012. In February 2012, Waterhouse was a member of the United States Army.

If convicted, Waterhouse faces a maximum penalty of 10 years in federal prison on each count.
