

Tenant Beats La Crosse Landlord

Monday, 25 March 2013 16:36 -

A La Crosse landlord is probably still a little sore after getting pummeled by his tenant. Cops say the landlord went to collect rent from his tenant Demonz McClain at a place at about 9th and Vine. The two men got into an argument and McClain apparently slugged the landlord pretty good in the face. Broke his nose, fractured his cheekbone, and gave him a black eye. Not the first time the landlord has had a problem with McClain, apparently. He tells cops, earlier this month, McClain threatened to cut him with a knife, sticke him with an ice pick and shove a toilet plunger up his rear-end. McClain faces a couple of felonies.
