

Petty Now Ordered To Trial For Jameson Shooting

Wednesday, 17 April 2013 11:18 -

More than a month after a man went to a La Crosse hospital to be treated for bullet wounds to the neck, the man accused of shooting him is ordered to go to trial.

William Petty is charged with endangering the safety of Michael Jameson, and with threatening a witness. Police investigator Ryan Fitzgerald says Petty threatened to harm a woman who saw him handle the gun that shot Jameson, and she fled to Milwaukee. The woman told police that Petty and a second man hid the gun in a garage right after the shooting.