

State Representative, Steve Doyle says his yes vote on a bill to limit what items food share recipients should be able to buy, takes him back to La Crosse County. He explains why.

\(Click for Audio\)

This week, the lower house voted 68 to 26 in favor of a bill from Neenah Republican Dean Kaufert. It now heads to the senate. Doyle says it faces a rocky road once it gets back to the federal government.