

Students and faculty support a tobacco ban at UW-L, but an advisory council of clerical, maintenance and custodial staff voted against it. And Chancellor Joe Gow says there are some reasonable issues that have been brought to light. Issues that will lead to compromise.

\(Click for Audio\)

Gow says they will have some kind of tobacco policy in place by the fall.