

Guy Arrested After Demanding to Get Let in At Police Station

At some point early this morning, it probably occurred to an Onalaska man that he really didn't want to get into the La Crosse police station that badly. But by then he was already in cuffs. Cops say a drunken 56 year-old Clarence Bendel was arrested this morning after pounding on the police station lobby doors and demanding to get let in. Bendel had been tossed from a bar a little while earlier and was there to complain about it apparently. Cops say Bendel wouldn't leave, got difficult and eventually they cuffed him and hauled him away.
