

It's either three strikes your out.....or third time's a charm for a school referendum in Arcadia. Superintendent, Louie Ferguson says they are listening to what the community has to say after shooting down two others the past two years.

\(Click for Audio\)

The plan now is to seek $12 million from residents to pay for the 57 thousand square foot addition, plus an additional $2.1 million to upgrade the current elementary school building for a total of $14.1 million. The vote takes place in November.