

Even among city council supporters of a crackdown on rentals in La Crosse, there's some misgivings. City council member Jai Johnson supports plans for a task force to nail down ways to deal with debilitated neighborhoods. Just doesn't like the six month moratorium on rental conversions that goes along with the plan

\(Click for Audio\)

Final vote on the rental moratorium/task force plan comes tonight at city hall.