

This year's Labor Day celebration in La Crosse is dedicated to the memory of Jack Reihl, La Crosse native and former President of the Wisconsin State AFL-CIO. Bill Brockmiller, also of the state AFL-CIO says a local bar is a huge contributor to this year's parade.

\(Click for Audio\)

After the 10:00 parade Monday morning, festivities will move to Copeland Park with free kids games, face painting, and other activities. Two musical acts, a bagpiper and rhythm and blues band, will entertain during the festivities. This year's Parade Marshal is Phil Neuenfeldt, President of the Wisconsin State AFL-CIO.