

The flu and cold season is officially here as confirmed cases of both are coming to statewide hospitals. But so has the whooping cough. What's what between them all?

\(Click for Audio\)

Christine Berth of the La Crosse County Health Department says you can really tell if it's whooping cough if after a week the cold effects go away by the cough lingers. She says don't want whooping cough? Get vaccinated.