

A 15-million dollar development planned for north La Crosse will require cooperation from local government and several business experts. Marvin Wanders owns Three-Sixty Real Estate Solutions...and he's happy to be working with Borton Construction and others on the business and housing project near the footwear factory:

\(Click for Audio\)

Wanders credits La Crosse Mayor Tim Kabat with wanting to 'get things done' on the city's north side.