

Judge Appreciates Raise Proposal, Says He'll Run Either Way

Tuesday, 12 November 2013 12:46 -

The one guy not asking for a raise for the municipal judge in La Crosse? It's the municipal judge in La Crosse. Judge Dennis Marcou says he appreciates the mayor's effort to get him some extra money to make up for losing his city-funded health insurance, but he would run for office again in the spring anyway.

\(Click for Audio\)

The mayor has recommended boosting pay for the judge job to 45 thousand. Salary is currently 37 plus benefits for the part time position. The full city council votes on the pay proposal tonight.