

14 Year Old Car Thief Arrested in La Crosse

Tuesday, 10 August 2010 08:40 -

A fourteen year-old has been arrested for stealing a car after a slow-speed chase in La Crosse. Cops say they followed the fourteen year-old and his two buddies in the stolen Chrysler 300 for just a few blocks on the southside yesterday before the kid pulled over. They say he'd apparently stolen the car over the week-end and was out for a joy ride with his friends, just squealing tires on the car with the vet's plate and an NRA sticker on the back. Police say the chase never went over forty. The boy will be referred on juvenile charges only.
