

Teen Struck on Losey Updated

Thursday, 12 December 2013 16:04 -

A 15 year old male Central High School student was hit this morning as he was attempting to cross Losey Blvd at Redfield Street. He was hit by a semi tractor trailer.

The student was west bound attempting to cross at the crosswalk and the semi was south bound on Losey Blvd at the time. The student was transported by ambulance to Gundeson where he was treated for minor injuries and is expected to be released later today.

The accident is under investigation at this time by the La Crosse Police Department and WI State Patrol.
