Food tasting.....entertainment....prizes....all a part of the Taste of Onalaska taking place Saturday night at the Stoney Creek Inn.

This is the sixth annual event for the education organization which hopes to raise money in support of their mission to fund innovative Onalaska public and private educational programs. Corinna Todd tells us the amount they are looking to raise.

All funds raised during the evening will be designated by the board of directors of the Foundation to Claude Deck Innovative Teacher Grants. In October, $13 thousand was awarded for innovative teacher grants bringing the total amount awarded by the Foundation for this program to over $94 thousand.
