

When Governor Scott Walker stops in the area, it's usually to talk campaigning, or politics or the economy. He put all that aside this morning at a stop at the St. Patrick's School.

\(Click for Audio\)

Walker read in several classrooms and touted his favorite book as a child, the Dr. Seuss classic, Green Eggs and Ham. Walker's also favorite book as a child. Dr. Seuss's birthday is March 2nd.