

Florida Murder Suspects Leave Winona Jail

Friday, 10 September 2010 12:12 -

After a week behind bars in Minnesota, two men wanted for a triple-murder in Florida are headed south...

James Howze and Lonnie Munn are being transported now to Suwannee County, Florida...where they'll be charged with the shooting deaths of an older couple and their nephew. The fugitives were nabbed last week while camping out at Whitewater State Park near Winona. Detectives traced them to Winona County when one of them used an A-T-M card in St. Charles. Ironically, the sheriff in Suwannee County had said just after the murders that he thought Munn and Howze would be caught close to the crime scene.