

All 178 Class A and B alcohol license holders in La Crosse have been notified that alcohol compliance checks are coming. We asked police Lt. Pat Hogan if convenience stores have had poorer records than say grocery stores since they have a larger turn around of employees.

\(Click for Audio\)

Hogan says though the establishments have been notified of the compliance checks, they were not told when they will be held.