

State of Emergency in Arcadia

Thursday, 23 September 2010 06:04 -

The mayor of Arcadia has declared a state of emergency throughout his city. No traffic other than emergency vehicles is being allowed into the city. Some are being evacuated from low-lying areas. Arcadia schools are closed because of flooding. There are reports cars are floating in the parking lot of Ashley Furniture.