

A couple of advisory referendums on the ballot this fall in La Crosse are just there to gauge opinion? Don't bet on it, says county board supervisor, Hubert Hoffman, who says the questions on minimum wage and healthcare will have a major impact on voter turnout

\(Click for Audio\)

La Crosse is one of several counties--including Dane and Milwaukee--that will have the same advisory measures on the ballot.