

Bus Catches Fire Near Black River Falls

Wednesday, 05 January 2011 08:53 -

A Greyhound bus is a total loss after it was destroyed by a fire while traveling from Chicago to Minneapolis. The bus caught fire early this morning near Black River Falls. The fire apparently was a result of a brake problem. The more than 40 people on board all escaped safely. Passengers are waiting at a hotel for a backup bus from Milwaukee to take them the rest of the way.
