

Teen Robbery Suspect's Background To Be Studied

Tuesday, 11 January 2011 13:06 -

One of the suspects in a New Year's Eve robbery in La Crosse will get to put off a 'not guilty' plea for a month...

Leon Hesser-Thompson's attorney wants to research the 17-year-old's 'psychological history,' following previous arrests in Minnesota. Hesser-Thompson and another teen are accused of stealing money from a 14-year-old on the victim's birthday, by threatening him with a B-B pistol.